PROJECT:

Title : Reflection of Objects

Description : Reflection Of Objects aims at drawing reflection of the objects on the floor to capture extra realism in 3D programming. Bouncing ball having its reflection on the floor can make the bouncing scenario more beautiful and realistic. It has all the features to render fast high-quality reflections on planar surfaces.

Title : Truth Discovery in Crowd Sourced Events

Description : The truth discovery problem is uniquely distinct from the online counterpart which involves uncertainties in both participant's mobility and reliability. A new method to tackle the truth discovery problem is through principled probabilistic modelling. It is capable of efficiently handling various types of uncertainties and automatically discovering truth without any supervision or the need of continuous location tracking.
