Project Details:

Title: Teacher Location Tracking System in College Camps

This system is useful in such a way when one wants to find a particular teacher in large organization. This system easily tracks location of teacher when that teacher appears in particular region of organization. This system also updates and maintains teacher's location when teacher moves from one location to another location.

Title: Performance Appraisal System

Appraisal systems is designed in such a manner that they facilitate regular feedback for the employees. To analyze performance of employees, they have to be regularly updated about what is expected from them, how they are doing their work and how they needs to improve their work. Such regular feedback aims at continuous all-round development of employees.
